Moonlight Announces 2018 ClubM Series

Vista, CA (November 21, 2017) – Colleen Kollar Smith, Producer of Moonlight Presents, announces the 2018 ClubM series at the Moonlight Amphitheatre. Smith has programmed three popular musical theatre songstresses to appear at the Moonlight Amphitheatre's intimate indoor cabaret space. The series opens Jan. 13, 2018 with Bets Malone: Broadway the BROAD Way. An Intimate Evening with Lucie Arnaz is next on Feb. 10, 2018, followed by Daebreon Poiema: The Reason Why I Sing on March 3, 2018. Tickets for all concerts are on sale now at moonlightstage.com, or by phone at (760) 724-2110.

In its third year, ClubM is offering a new seating configuration for two of the concerts (for Bets Malone and Daebreon Poiema) called Pub Seating. This configuration will offer reserved table seats, reserved seats only, and standing-room-only belly bar admission. The food option for this configuration will include tray-passed appetizers for those buying table seating. For Lucie Arnaz's performance, ClubM's traditional three-course dinner will be offered. For all concerts, a cash bar is available.

Moonlight Presents offers concerts and other performances throughout the year at the Moonlight Amphitheatre, owned and operated by the City of Vista for 37 years. The remaining 2018 line-up will be announced.
